

ALAI European Authors' Right Award – supported by GESAC

Guidelines

ALAI, a worldwide network of academics and experts in intellectual property wants to give young researchers the opportunity to showcase their views on EU copyright and collective management of this right by entering an essay competition. The award is supported by GESAC, a European grouping of authors' rights management societies.

Prize

€3,000 in cash prizes will be awarded with €2,000 for the winner and €1,000 for the runner-up.

Both winners will receive:

- € 500 lump sum to cover travel and lodging for the awards ceremony which will take place in Brussels;
- 1-year- subscription to the International Authors' Right Magazine "RIDA";
- participation in the 2019 International ALAI Congress in Prague (no travel or lodging costs included);
- 1-year participation fee for membership to the winner's national ALAI Group;
- translation of the article into French or English;
- possible publication of the winning article, e.g. on the ALAI website.

Subject

- The essay will be
 - i. related to authors' right
 - ii. with a European dimension (this may include the comparison of third country systems with that of the EU)
 - iii. including aspects related to the collective management of copyright.
- The applicants will be free to choose the specific issue, on which they submit their applications, within this framework.

Format

Eligible students wishing to take part in the competition must provide:

- an abstract of the essay that they wish to submit (one-page summary maximum);
- an essay of maximum 30,000 characters, or about 15 pages, based on a Master's thesis or an ongoing research project within a university.
