

ALAI European Authors' Right Award - supported by GESAC

Application Form for the 6th edition / 2024

Application form to be filled out, signed by the candidate, and sent with the essay abstract to alai.award@gesac.org by no later than November 30, 2023.

Applicant's surname(s) and first name(s):

Gender:

Nationality:

Date of birth:

Address:

Phone number:

E-mail address:

Name and address of the applicant's university and faculty:

Level of study / professional status:

State of the work on which the application is based (cross out what is inaccurate):

in progress - presented in 2022 – submitted later than 2022

Name(s) and e-mail address(es) of the professor(s) who has/have recommended the applicant to apply:

Reminder of the technical conditions that must be respected by the applicant:

- The essay must
  - i. be related to copyright;
  - ii. have a European dimension (this may include the comparison of third country systems with that of the EU); and
  - iii. include aspects that could be of interest to the collective management of copyright.
- The essay must be based on a master's thesis or an ongoing research project within a university.
- The work on which the application is based can either be in progress or have been submitted in 2022 or later.
- The applicant must send in an abstract of the essay they intend to submit (a page of approximately 2000 characters, excluding spaces); the deadline for sending the abstract is 30 November 2023.
- The essay should be about fifteen pages long (about 30,000 characters maximum (excluding spaces, possible annexes, and bibliography); the deadline for sending the essay is 15 February 2024.
- In Word format.
- Recommended typography:
  - Font: Times New Roman or Arial
  - Font size: 11 or 12 pts
  - Spacing: 1,5 cm
  - The text must be justified
- The abstract and the essay must be in English or French.

I, the undersigned _____ (name, surname and pronouns of the applicant), authorise the reproduction and distribution of the abstract and the essay proposed for the ALAI European Authors' Right Award by the ALAI and GESAC worldwide and by all means and for the entire duration of the copyright and without special remuneration in addition to the prize awarded to the winner(s).

Date and place:

Signature of applicant